PRESENTS

THE ALMA MATER

We are proud to present the Alma Mater as the theme of our 1958 yearbook. To the students of Newport News High School it is symbolic of the fellowship experienced in the classroom, the participation shown in activities, and the fun shared in our school life. Our appreciation is extended to Arthur Hundley, who as a student in 1937, composed the words and music for the song that has become so dear to us through the years. In the future we will always remember our Alma Mater and what it means to us.

THE ALMA MATER

Within these sacred walls we stand,
To praise thine honored name,
We sing to thee, dear Newport High,
Thy glories we proclaim.

Chorus:

Hail, hail to Gold and Blue,
We raise thy banners high,
And ever through thine endless days,
In triumph may they fly.

O Alma Mater, in our hearts,
We'll often turn to thee,
And echo once again the songs
Of thy dear memory.

Words and music by
Arthur Hundley, 1937

YOU'RE THE GREATEST

It is our privilege as the graduating seniors of 1958 to dedicate our yearbook to a man who has devoted unlimited time and effort for our benefit. Due to his spirit of fairness and good sportsmanship, he has been an inspiration and guidance in our everyday life as well as in the field of athletics. We shall always remember this past year and the man who strived to make our team one we could be proud of. Because of his understanding and humorous nature, he is respected not only as a coach but also as a true friend to all, and so to the class of '58, Mr. J. C. (Cowboy) Range, you're the greatest coach, teacher, and friend a school could ever have.

Remembering

P. W. Allen Raine
1940 - 1957

We pause to pay tribute to one whose outstanding leadership, superior ability and Christian character were an inspiration to the students and faculty of Newport News High School. Our sympathy is extended to his family, for we too realize the loss of a great man and a respected teacher.

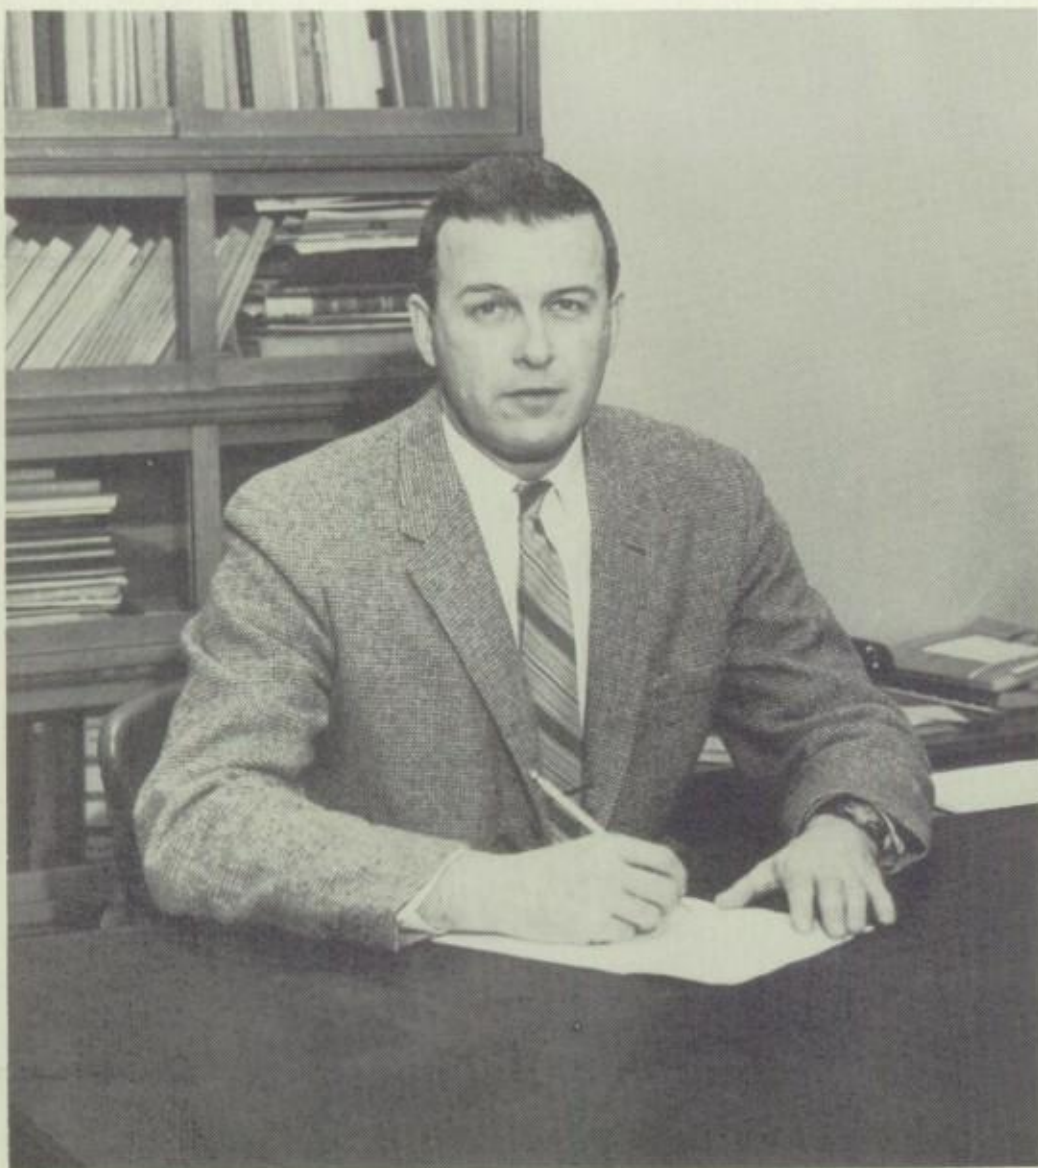

“To Praise Thine Honored Name”

FACULTY

A VITAL PART OF OUR ALMA

MR. GEORGE J. McINTOSH

Mr. George J. McIntosh, our highly respected principal, has earned for himself the admiration of the faculty and student body. His interest in his work and the thoroughness in which he carries out his duties of the day have added greatly to the dignity and prestige of our school. His quiet but thoughtful manner has made him a friend as well as one we look up to for guidance.

MR. THOMAS O. KEESEE

Good nature and friendliness are among the many outstanding qualities of our assistant principal, Mr. Thomas O. Keesee. Besides acting as disciplinary officer, Mr. Keesee is kept busy by working out class schedules and playing an important part in the work of the administration. His jolly smile and jovial personality combine to make him a wonderful person.

MATER IS THE ADMINISTRATION

MR. S. D. GREEN

Being assistant Superintendent of Schools involves many responsibilities, such as serving as a member of the School Board. Mr. Green is also in charge of carrying out the routine duties of the school system.

MISS ETHEL GILDERSLEEVE

Dean of girls, Miss Ethel Gildersleeve, has been the inspiration of many students throughout their high school years. She guides the students with their projects and helps with the administrative work. She serves as advisor to the Student Council and the Future Teachers of America. Miss Gildersleeve has an admirable personality and is well liked by everyone.

DR. R. O. NELSON

One of the most outstanding men of our community is the Superintendent of Schools, Dr. R. O. Nelson. He is concerned with the various problems that arise, from the planning of the yearly budget to recommending the names of new teachers to be presented to the School Board. Because of his congenial personality and authoritative attitude he has established a fine reputation at Newport News High School.

MISS ELMA FREE

It is with deep regret that we witness the retirement of a teacher who has spent many hours on the behalf of her students. Miss Free, Latin teacher and sponsor of the Latin Club, has been a constant guide to her pupils and has shown her outstanding teaching ability throughout her many years of service. Our sincere appreciation is extended to Miss Free, who we will always remember with respect and admiration.

“And Echo Once Again the Songs of Thy Dear Memory”

SENIOR

WE SELECTED ABLE SPONSORS

Congratulations to you as you complete your high school days.

In the future, may you find happiness and contentment in your chosen field. I have enjoyed sharing with you the activities of your Senior year and it is my sincere hope that each of you may recall pleasant memories of this year.

Serving as your sponsor has been an honor and a privilege and I will indeed miss you.

Very sincerely,
Moneda Key

Congratulations to you, the members of the 1958 graduating class. It has been an honor and a pleasure to work with you as your sponsor during the past year.

I believe all of you realize that life is like a mountain, and your goal must be to reach the top. Don't think that your graduation from high school has put you at the pinnacle, for this is only another step in your climb. Look upward, and you will see that the greater the ascent, the wider your vision. Your climb must continue in order for you to attain these broader visions; however, it will be more difficult as you progress because many of your guides cannot go further with you.

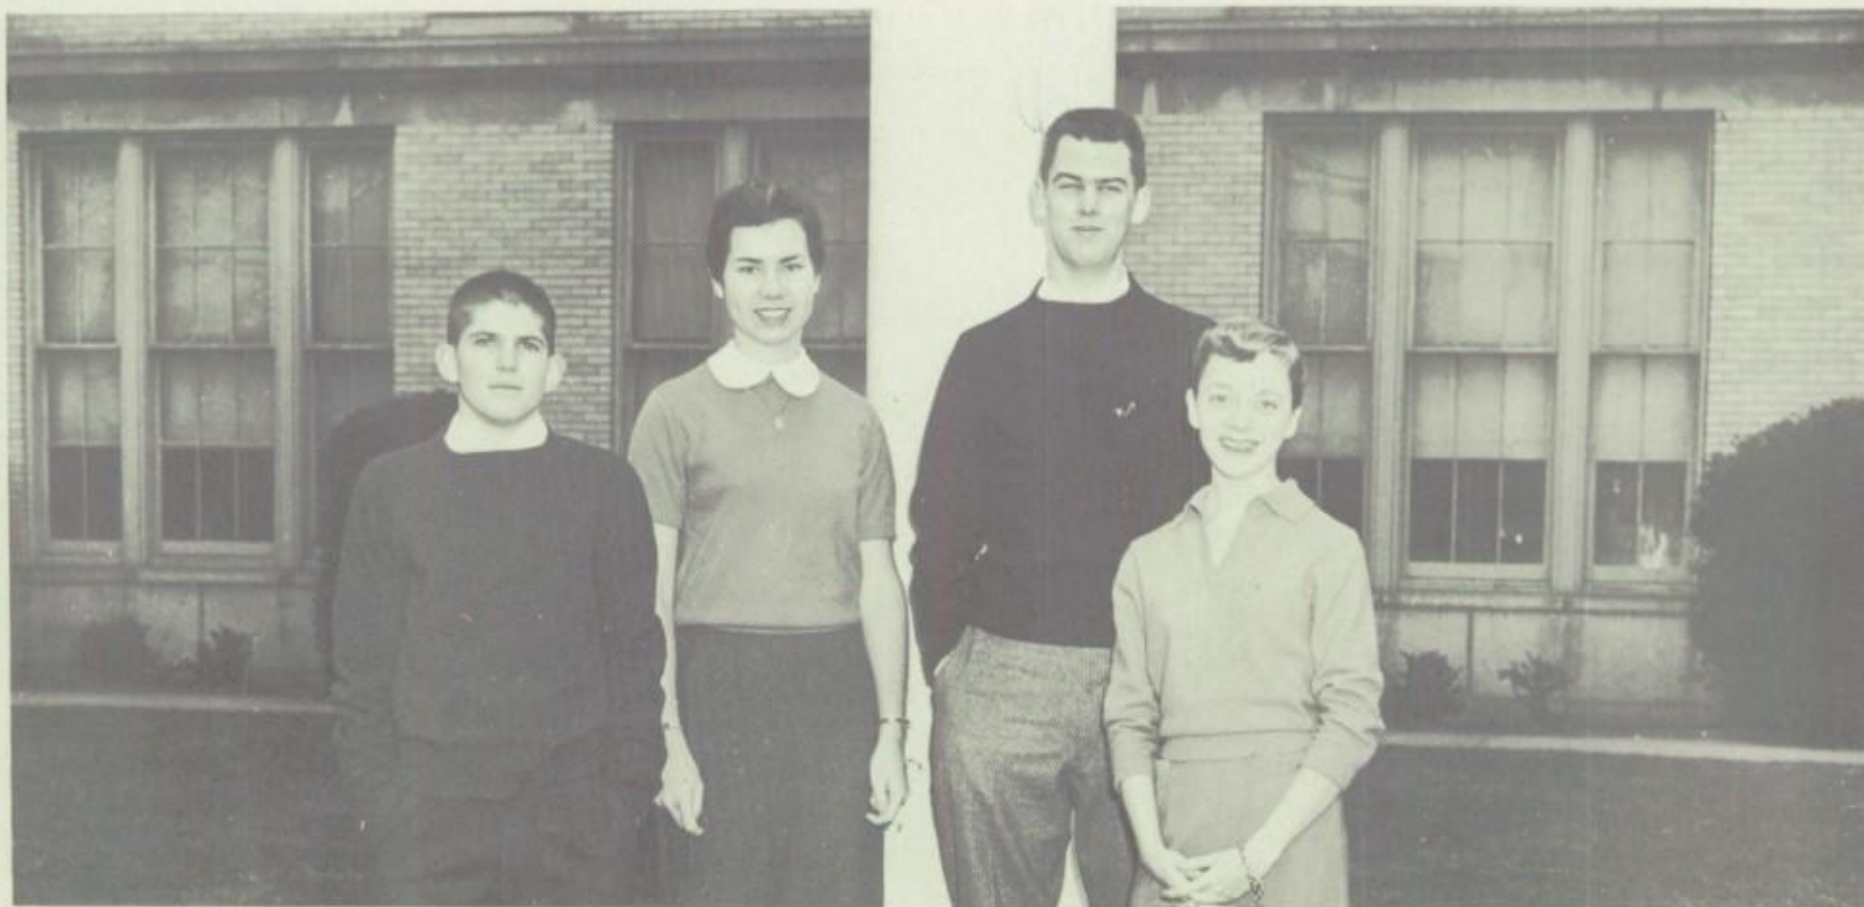

Now that you have finished high school and must go forward in life, don't limit your accomplishments to others' outward actions, but grow great through dreams. Some of us often let these noble dreams die, but others will nourish and protect them through bad days until they eventually come true. I am sure that you will take the latter course and achieve a happy, prosperous life.

Good luck to each of you.

Sincerely,
Charles W. Nuttycombe

AND OUTSTANDING LEADERS

Our capable officers have led us through an exciting last year at N.N.H.S. They are: l. to r., Dick Wynne, President; Carolyn Todd, Treasurer; Gary Bunting, Vice President; and Pam Pennington, Secretary.

These students possess many talents and qualities, that are vital to the Senior Class. They are: l. to r., Faye Allred, Class Giftorian; Brent Tilghman, Honor Council Representative; Evelyn Fryer, Honor Council Representative; and Don Hardy, Honor Council Chairman and Senior Executive Board Representative.

OUR COMMITTEES PLANNED

LaRhue Nettles and Evelyn Fryer, co-chairmen of the Senior Assembly Committee, are busy working on the script for the assembly.

Dorothea Sloop, chairman of the Music Committee, accompanies Judy Leake and Buck Hart, co-chairmen of the Dance Committee.

These various Senior Committees work for the benefit of the Senior class and aid us in the selection of our class colors, flowers, pennants, and invitations. They also plan our Senior Assembly which is held each spring.

Frances Lawson, chairman of the Pennant Committee, Lydia Powell and Nancy Shaw, co-chairmen of the Bulletin Board Committee, and Becky Marshall, chairman of the Motto Committee, decorate the bulletin board.

Pat Cutchins, substituting for Joann Scott, chairman of the Color Committee, and Diane Wimmer, chairman of the Flower Committee, display some of our class symbols.

Carolyn Todd, chairman of the Ring Committee, and Andra Bos, chairman of the Invitation Committee, plan the orders received from the Seniors.

Senior class sponsors, Miss Key and Mr. Nuttycombe enjoy the Senior "Frosty Hop."

Lena Rowe studies hard for her test tomorrow.

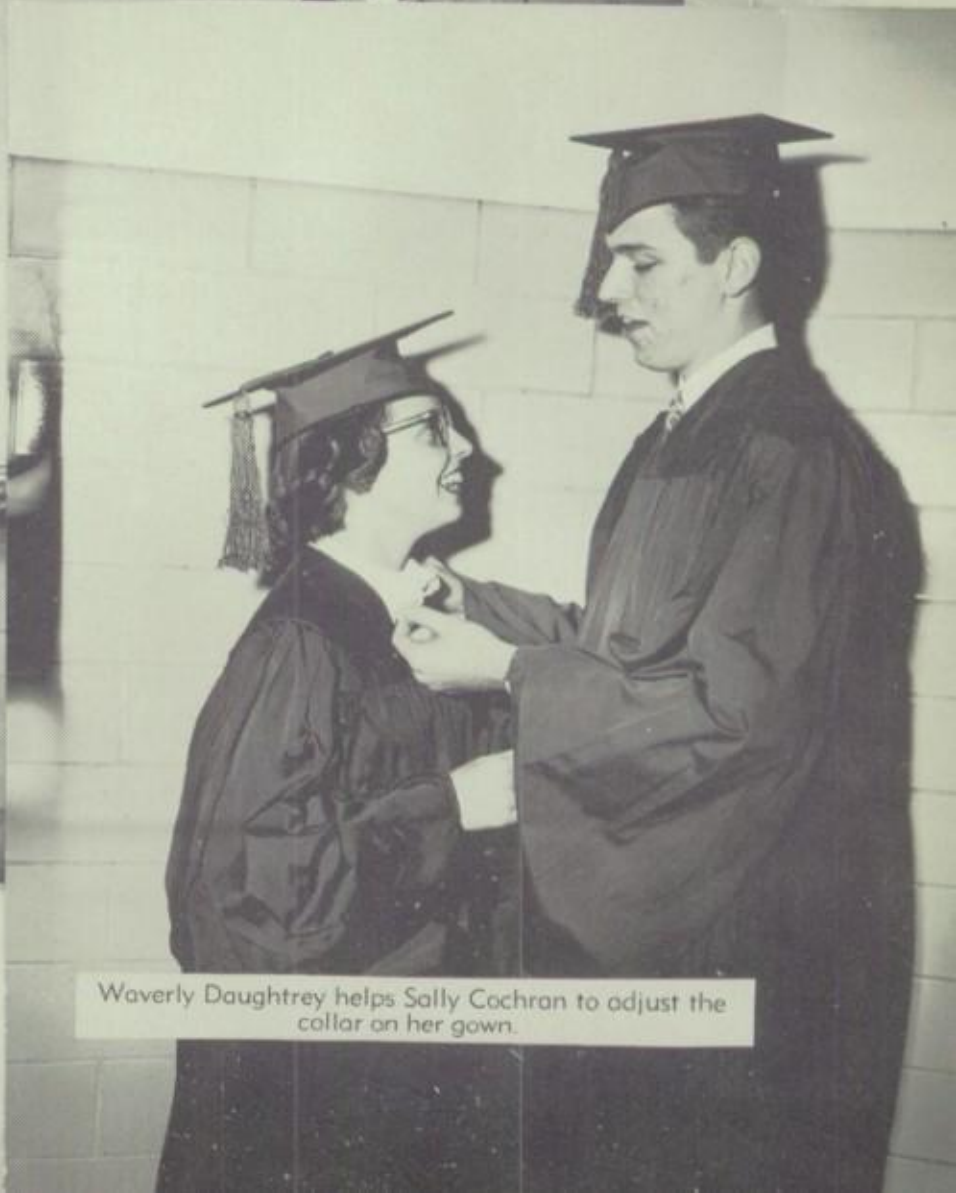

Gary Bunting transfers the cap and gown to the Junior class president, Don Bradley.

These seniors line up to practice for graduation exercises.

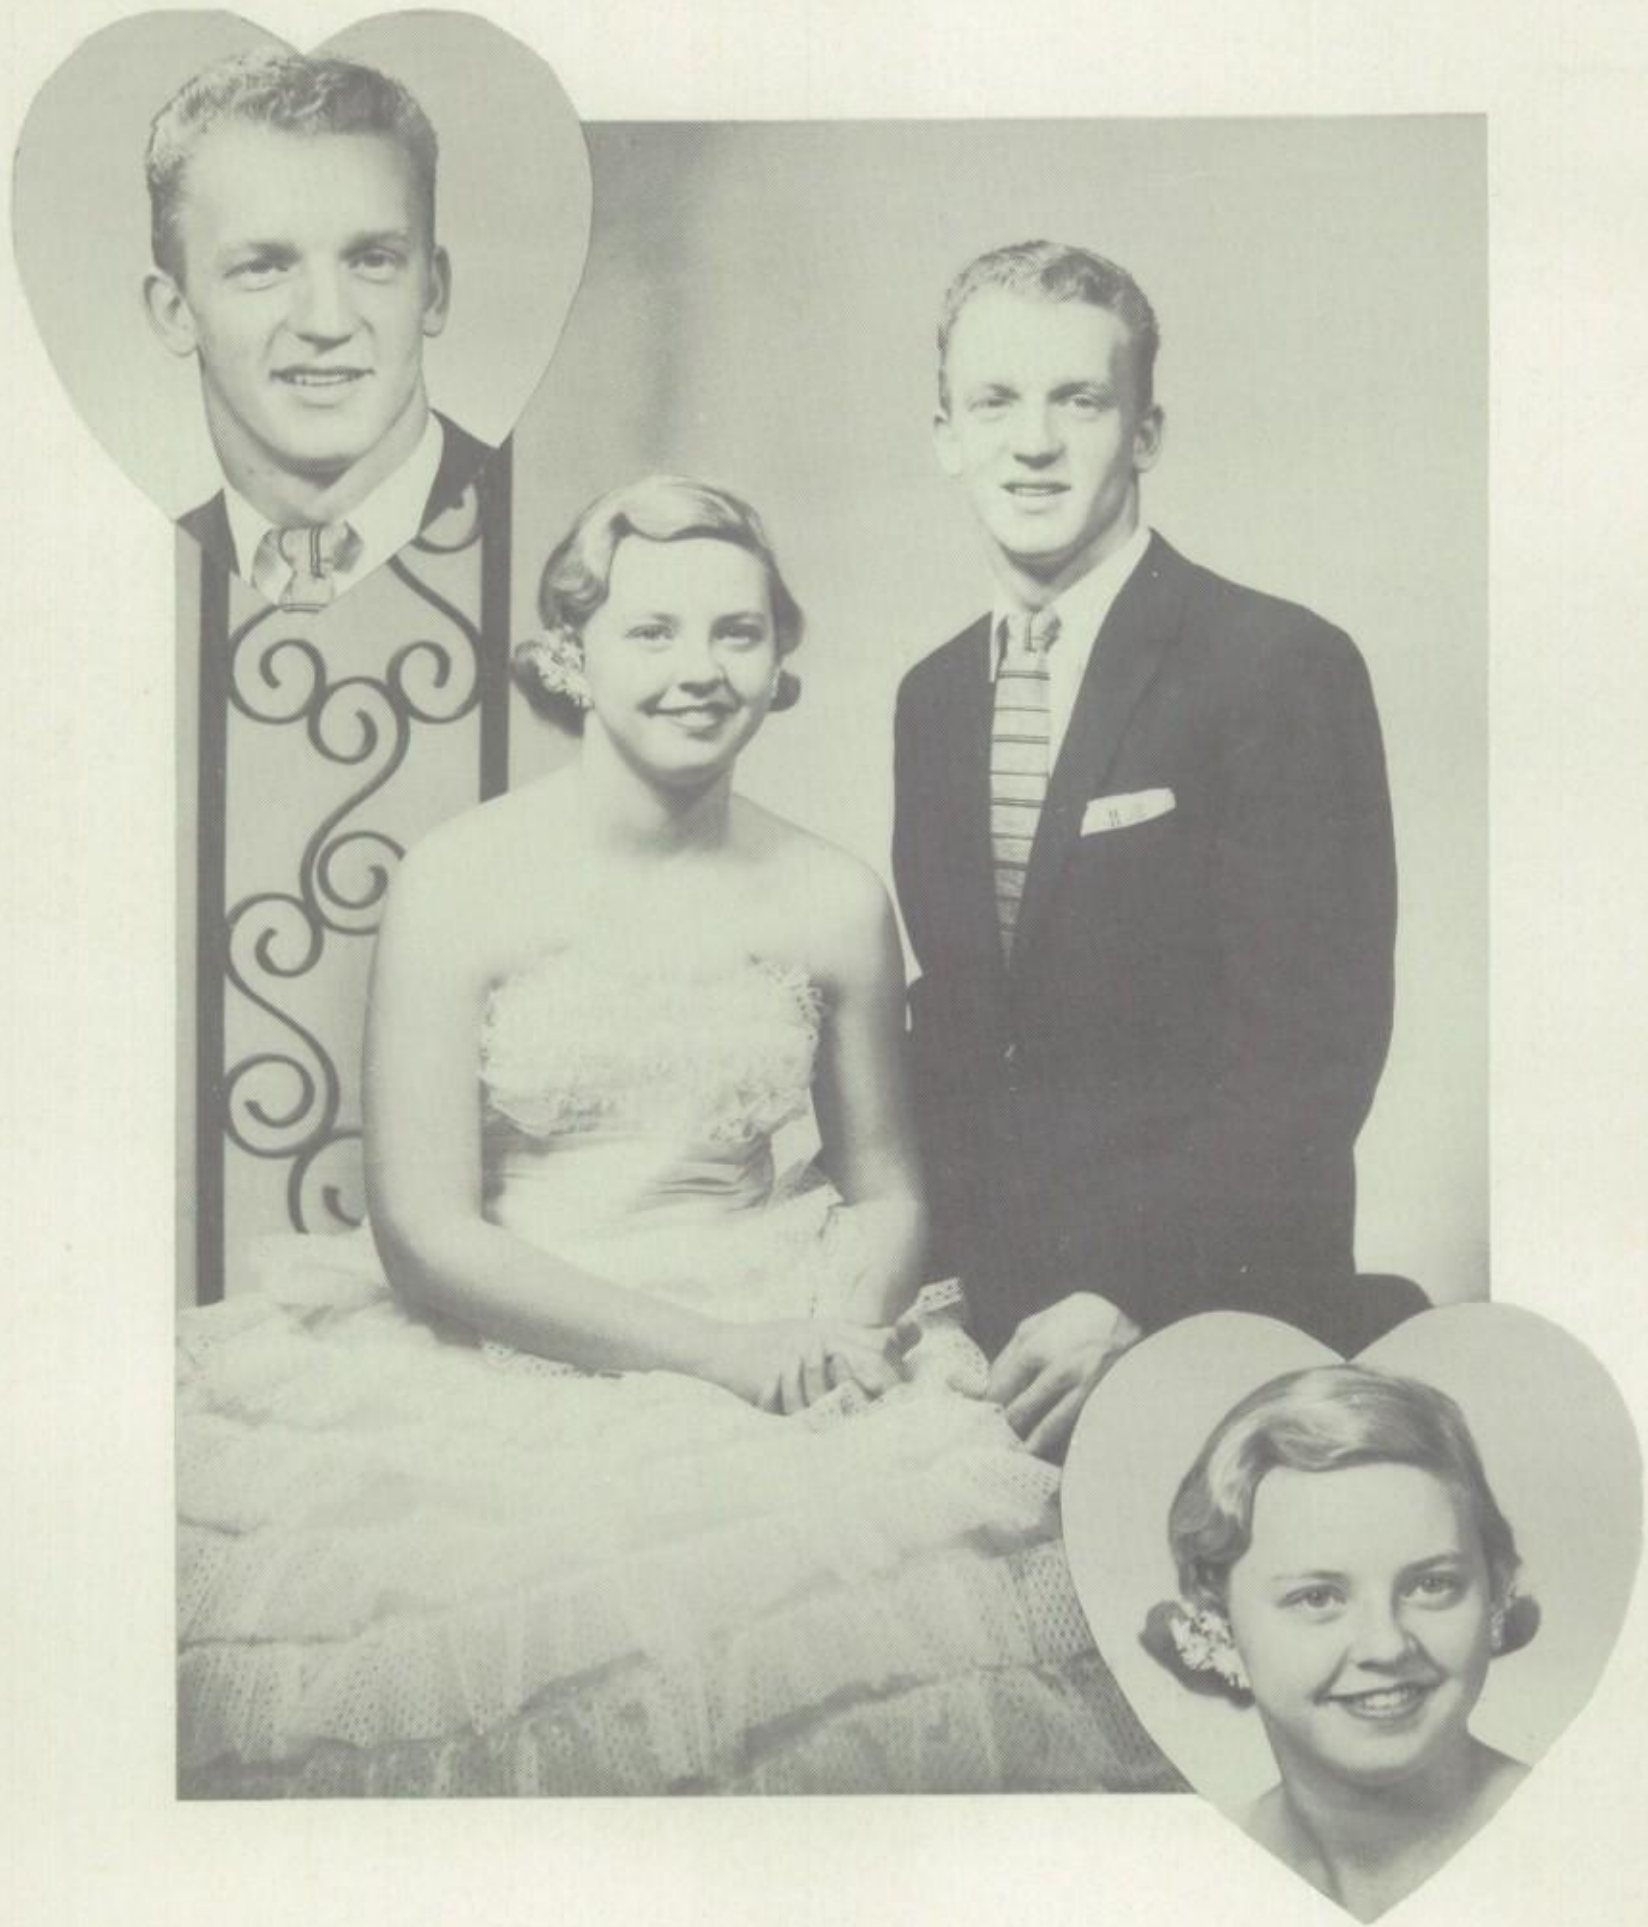

Taking time out from their work, ANCHOR staffers enjoy the snow.

Waverly Daughtrey helps Sally Cochran to adjust the collar on her gown.

Looking over the record of one of the students are Mr. Keesee and Mr. McIntosh.

Lunchtime is a time of relaxation and enjoyment for these Senior girls.

Gail Gaskins, Andra Bost, Virgil Meares, and Dan Outland stop to talk on the steps of the Y.M.C.A.

Gene Edmonds advises Dewey Faulkner on action shots for the sports section of the yearbook.

Preparing for the Senior dance are members of the committee, Bobby Derr, Judy Leake, and Buck Hart.

Dorothea Sloop stops at her locker to get her books for the next class.

Some of the ANCHOR members get their first view of Columbia University.

Lunch at the Biltmore was one of the highlights of the ANCHOR trip.

Weary after an exciting trip, staffers catch up on lost sleep.

At Columbia University ANCHOR members get new ideas to aid them in planning their yearbook.

Sightseers pause to admire the structure of the United Nations Building.

Three members view the New York sky line from the R.C.A. Building.

Everyone watches as Tzina Zwerdling signs Don Hardy's cast.

Leaving school after a busy day are Carole Holloway and Rannie Kennedy.

Meyera Ellenson buttons up David Peltz's overcoat as it begins to snow.

Rehearsing their parts in the Senior Tournament Play are Allan Willey, Henry Goad, and Pam Pennington.

Gary Bunting tells his classmates that there is no more room in his car.

John Munick and Ernest Scoggin wait outside the phone booth for Edward Doepppe to finish his call.

Late again, Barbara Schofield reports to Michael Doughty in the office.

Marjorie Hartless, Elliot Finkle, Janet Humphrey, and Doug Jones sign yearbooks.

Faye Allred, Queen of the Senior Class, is honored as a member of the royal court at the Azalea Festival.

Wilburt Horton, Pat Cutchins, and Gary Farnsworth exchange calling cards.

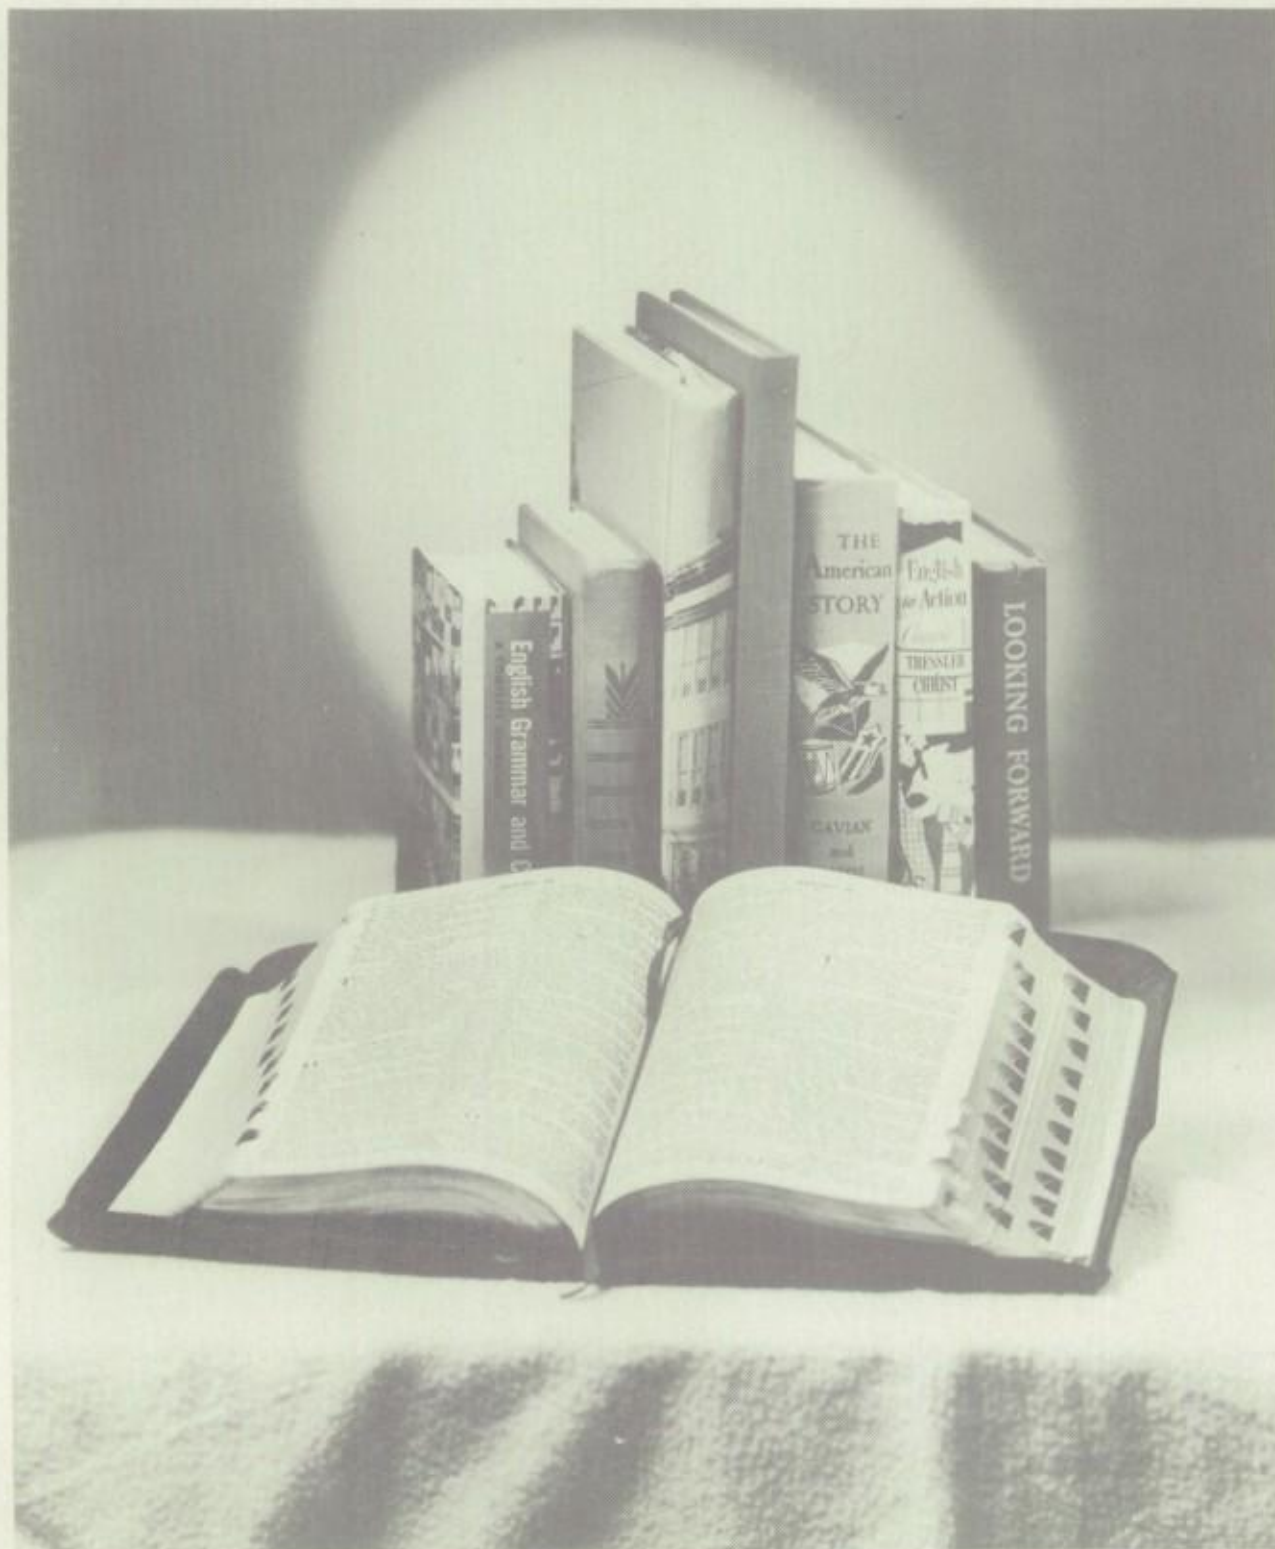

Enjoying their job of decorating the Senior Bulletin Board are Lydia Powell and Nancy Shaw.

These seven Seniors proudly display their class rings.

Busily decorating for their annual Junior Dance, the Gobble Hobble, are Don Bradley, Caroline Phillips, Eleanor Fowler, and Henry Horton.

Anticipating their Senior year are Clay Strader and Caroline Phillips as they take a look at the Senior Bulletin Board.

THEY STRIVED TO MAKE

Henry Horton and Eleanor Fowler, co-chairmen of the Junior Dance Committee, brush up on a few of the latest dance steps.

Taking a few minutes off for a picture before getting back to their jobs as Junior Committee heads are Caroline Phillips, Junior Decorating Committee; and Jean Tesh, Junior Ring Committee.

Heading the '59 ANCHOR staff will be these three capable students who are, left to right, Aretie Gallins, Co-Assistant Editor; Peggy Dail, Editor-in-chief; and Melinda Walker, Co-Assistant Editor.

THEIR NEXT YEAR A SUCCESS

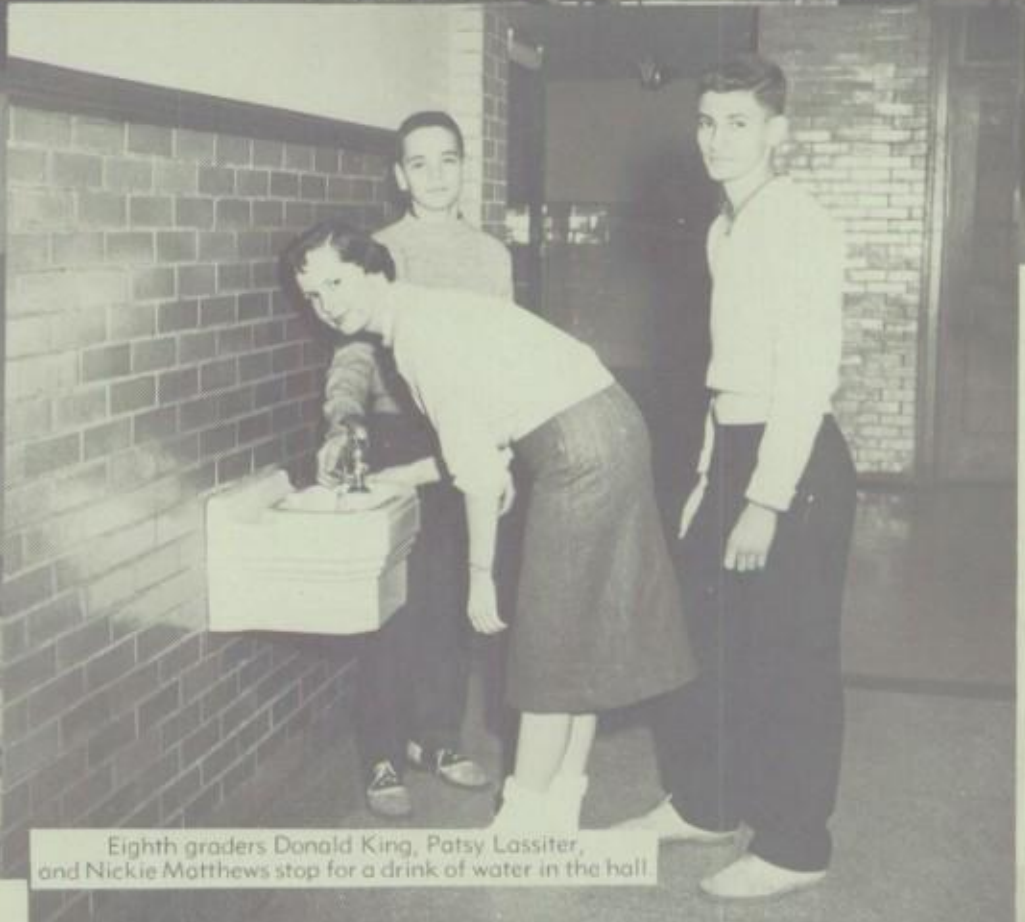

Ninth graders Wendell Williamson, Rochelle Leiter, and Banning Crossley leave school after a hard day's work.

Preparing their homework are these seventh graders, Linda Coates, Judy Horton, Steve Sparkman, and Bud Shaw.

Johnnie Canepa, Christine Anas, Eddie Cohen, and Steve Hockman pause to help a fellow tenth grader Carolyn Smith pick up her books.

Eighth graders Donald King, Patsy Lassiter, and Nickie Matthews stop for a drink of water in the hall.

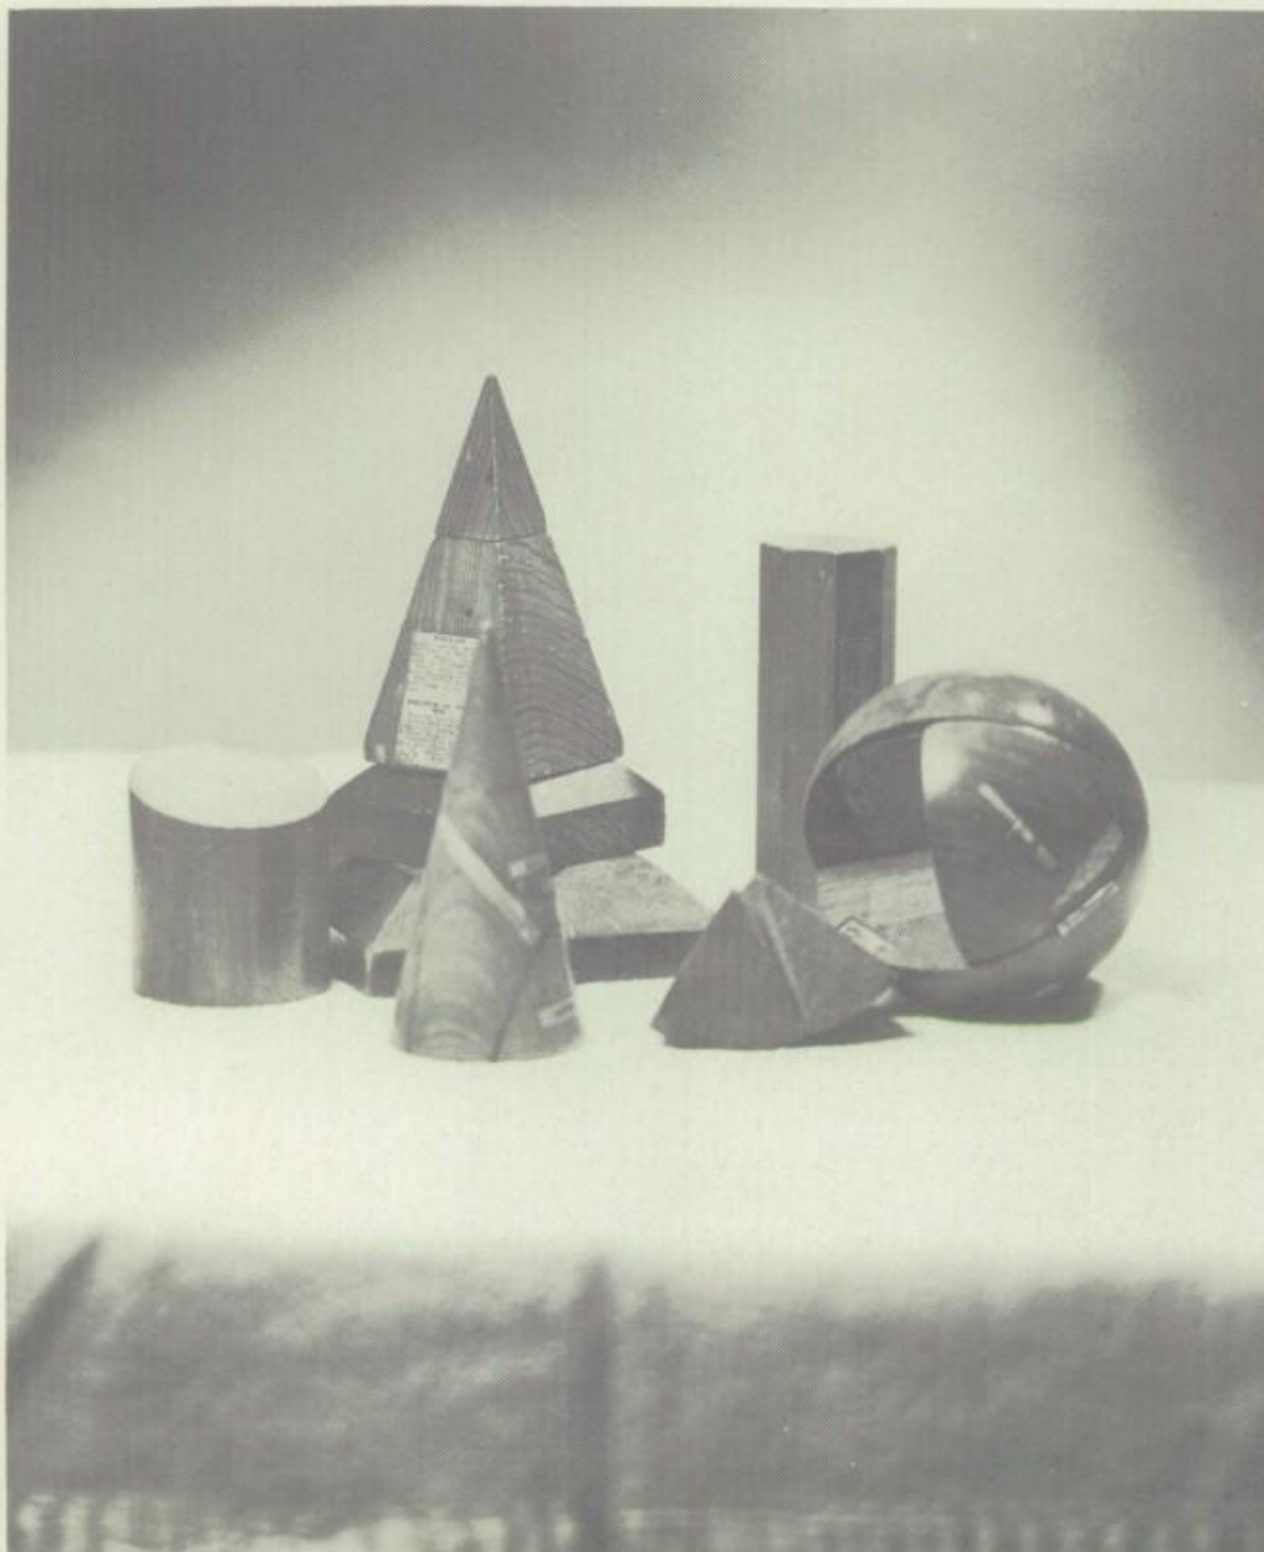

These Juniors, Jimmy Spivey and Mary Catherine Todd, stop to chat between classes with Kay Knight and Whit Hancock.

Helen Flax interviews foreign students Lin Wong, China; Constantine Balanis, Greece; and Heather Alcorn, Scotland.

“Within These Sacred Walls We Stand”

CLASSROOM

WE SHOWED INITIATIVE

Penny Pelham and Edward Mirmelstein take notes on the growth of plant life in Mrs. Conn's General Science class.

Putting in a slide for Lucille Phillips is Burnie Malpass. They are studying microscopic animal life in Mrs. Nettles's biology class.

Allan Willey assists Glenda Howard in cleaning out the test tube in Miss Baker's chemistry class.

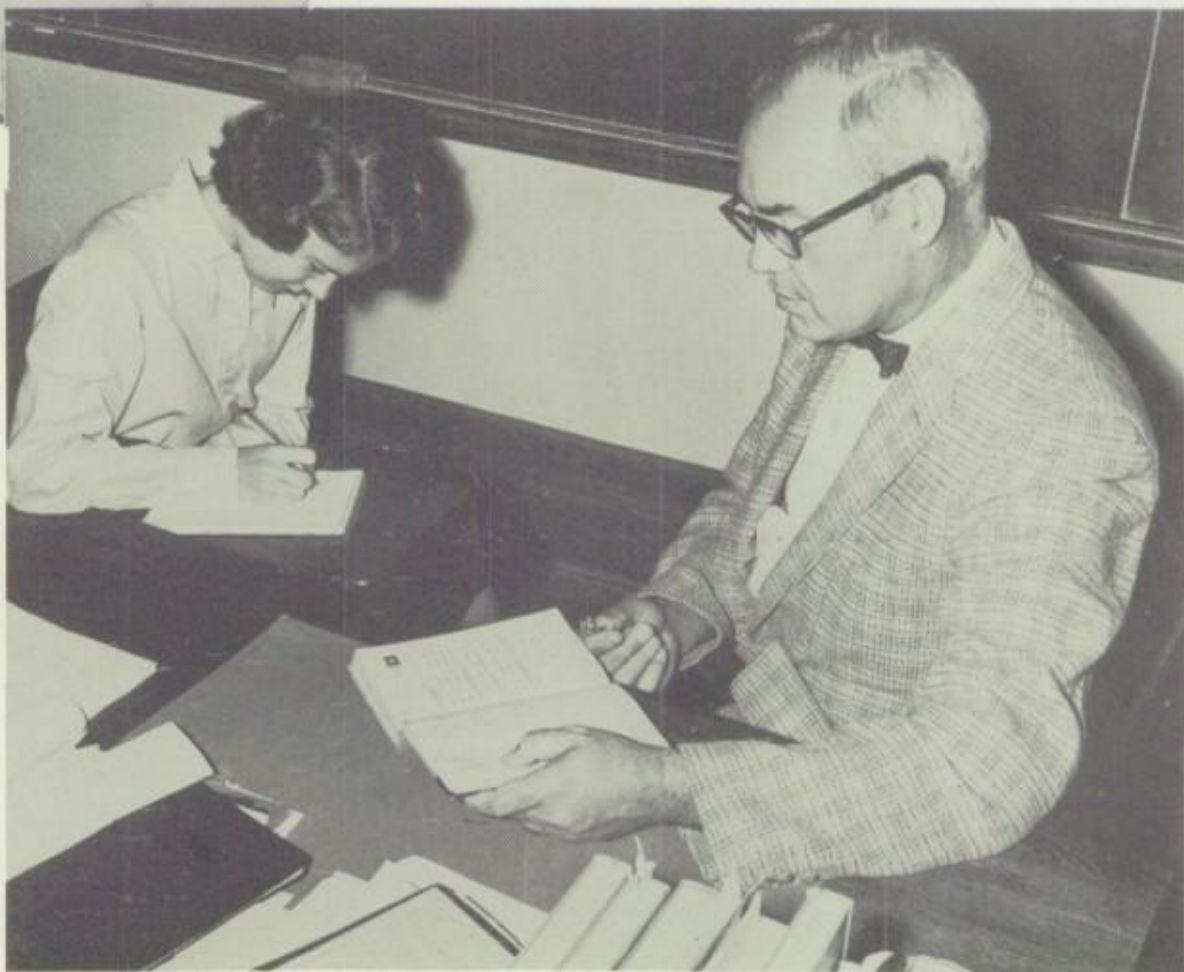

IN THE CLASSROOM

A big help to all teachers is the office practice class. Here Joan Ownby and Becky Marshall run off some mimeographed sheets in Miss Nurney's B period class.

Trying to get a 40 minute time write is Sally Scoggin. This course prepares secretaries for many of our local businesses and military bases.

Mr. Willey dictates a 60 for 5 in shorthand I to Juanita Whitaker in preparation for her future vocation.

WE WERE TRAINED

Working through the Distributive Education program are Jimmy Wilt, Mary Lou Harris, Jeanne Baker, and Barbara Wolf, who take time out to smile before leaving for work.

Mr. Bennett, Diversified Occupation coordinator, talks over problems which John Harrison and Richard Thorton encounter at work.

Totaling up his columns of figures is Delbert Amis, who is preparing himself for the future in Miss Nicosia's A period bookkeeping class.

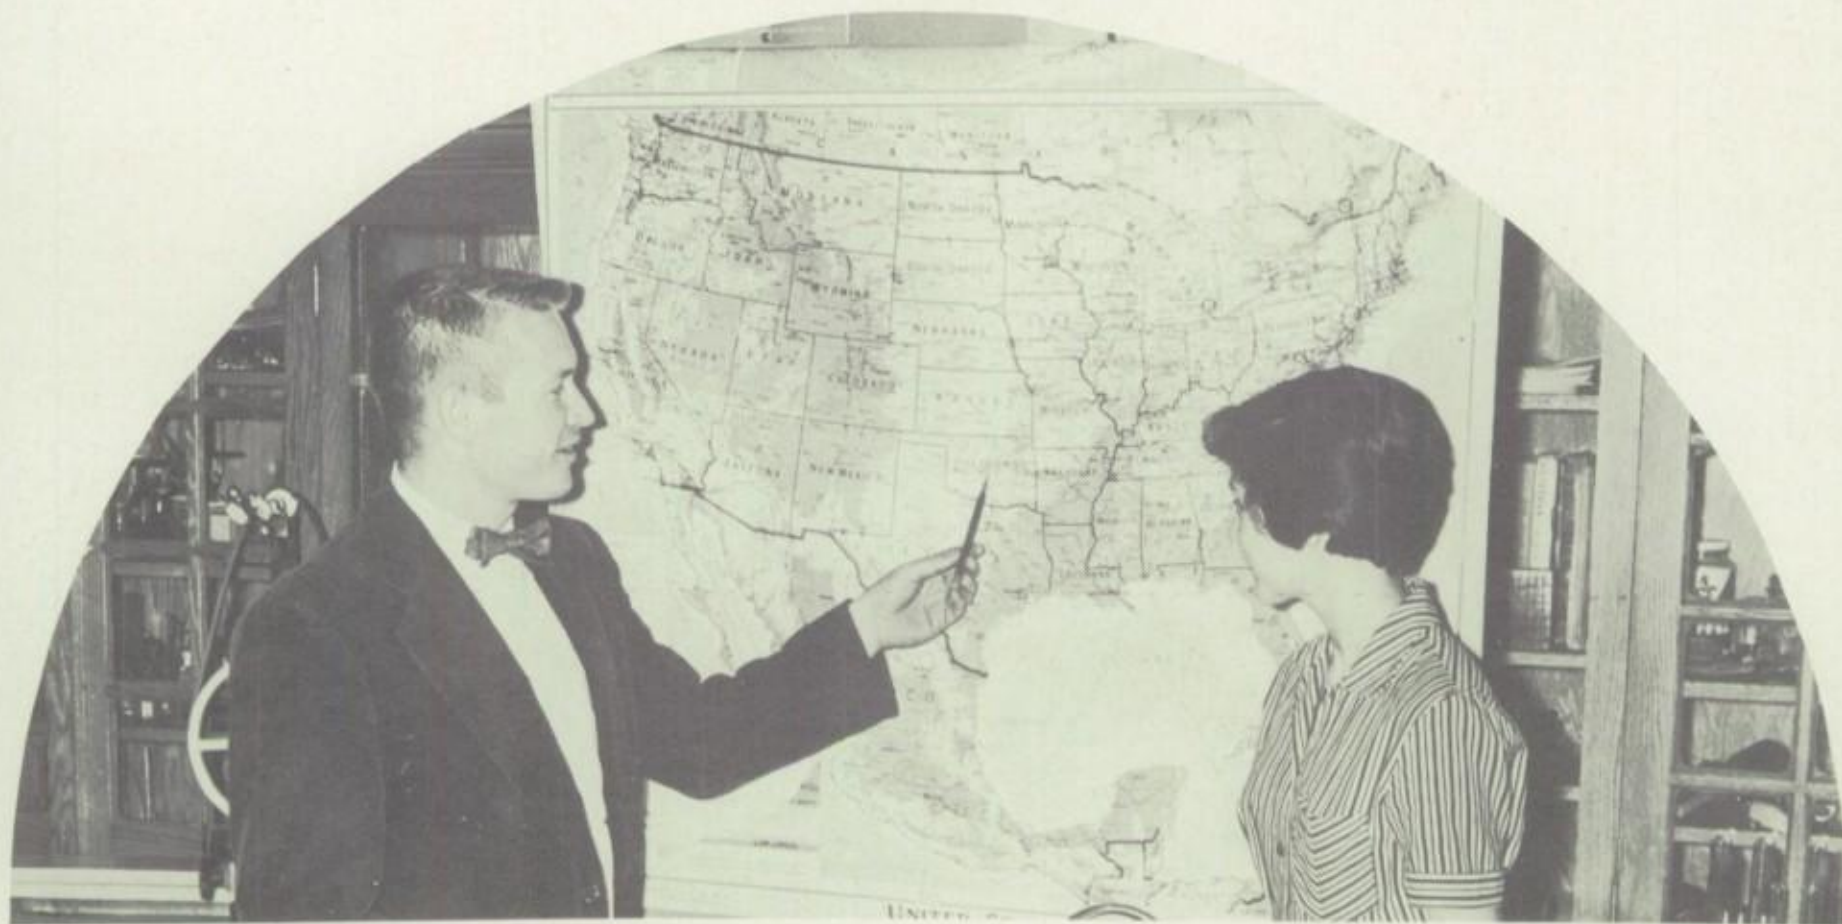

FOR OUR FUTURE CAREERS

"Here's the Atlantic Ocean," says Marcia Smith to Nancy Shaw in Miss Wise's world history class. Students in this class learn much about historic events which have taken place throughout the world.

Mr. Powers explains an important incident in U. S. History to Ronnie Miller.

"This is Oklahoma City, the capital of Oklahoma," says Mr. Nuttycombe to Virginia Kent in his geography class.

VARIOUS COURSES

David Peltz leads the weekly discussion on current events in Mr. Wheary's E period government class.

Priscilla Balanis, Miss Suttle, Tod Christian, and Shirley Neihouse watch the film, IVAN-HOE, as they follow the play in their textbooks.

Marsha Pettit explains to Ann Woodward, Steve Seltzer, Eddie Block and Joan Ponzar the structure of a Roman home in Miss Free's Latin class.

WERE OFFERED US

"Gracias, Senor," says Joan Sammons to Teddy Chandler as he points to a map of Spain in Miss Key's Spanish class.

Donald Goldenbaum is seen explaining to the class the theory of the inclined plane which is featured in the Physics I class.

Helping Jeanie Goldstein to translate an exercise is Mrs. Hoyle, French I teacher.

WORKING IN UNISON

James Kelly attentively listens as Miss Childress proves that two lines bisecting equal angles are parallel to each other. This is one of the many theorems that are taught in Geometry classes.

The class looks on as Sally Cochran with the aid of Elliot Finkle leads the discussion in Mr. Levy's solid geometry class.

As we glance into C period band class, we find the trumpet section busily practicing for the Senior band's coming concerts.

WE PROGRESSED RAPIDLY

Juanita Hayes points out carefully the notes on the music staff to Steve Frye. This is one of the many things taught in Miss Sherman's Music classes.

Burt Harris, master of ceremonies, assisted by Carolyn Wagner rehearse for the weekly "Typhoon Time" show which is prepared by the radio production classes.

Leading the chorus class is Miss Smith, choral director, in preparation for the annual Christmas assembly. Members of this class are chosen to participate in the Senior Chorus.

Learning to sew a fine seam is Lib Spell in Mrs. Marston's D period clothing class. This course prepares our young girls to be future homemakers of America.

WE PROUDLY STUDY AND LEARN

Setting type for the tickets which will be distributed to N. N. H. S. students for the spring play, is Faye Eure. Print shop is an elective subject taken by many of our students.

Alvin Marshall and Rannie Kennedy put the finishing touches on a bureau made in Mr. Somerville's wood shop.

Seen in Mr. Noel's machine shop are Randy Richardson and Gary Poteat grinding a piece of metal. This elective course is restricted to boys.

WITHIN THESE SACRED WALLS

Showing your talent? Janet Humphrey shows her artistic talent while painting a picture in oils during E period class.

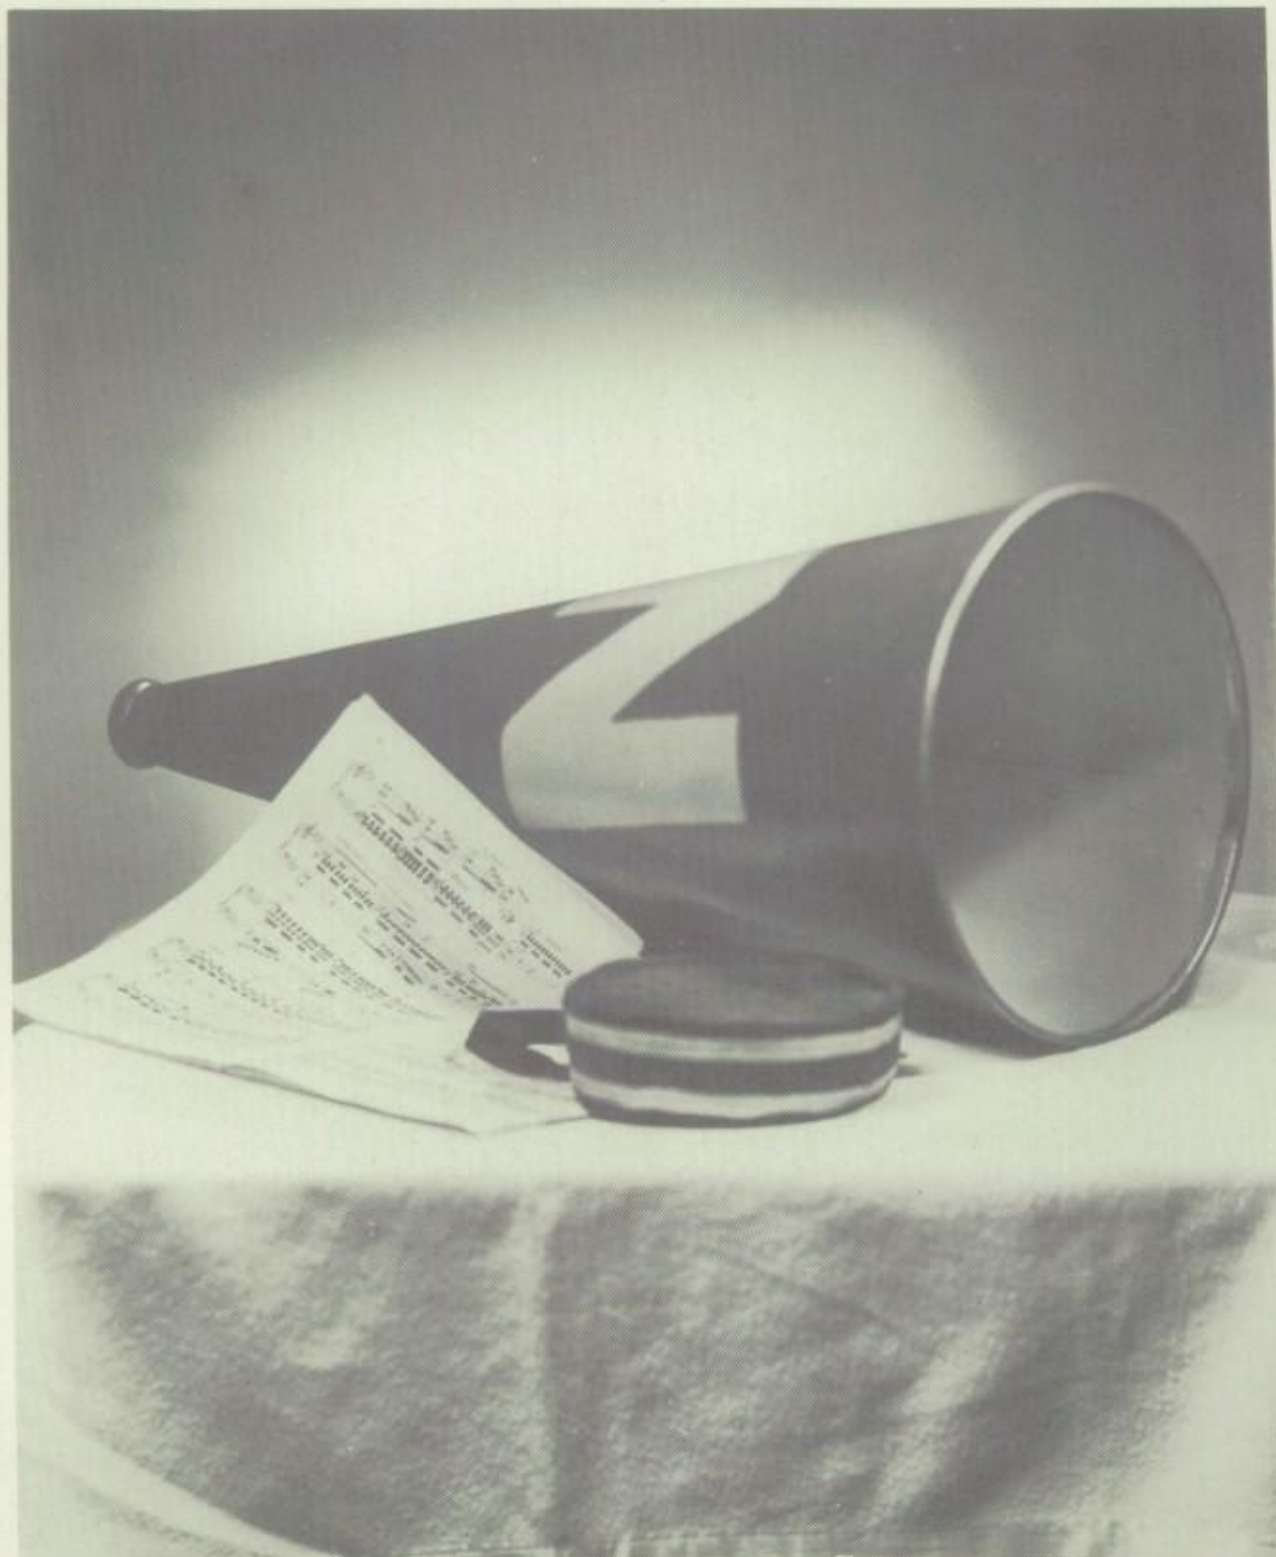

Busily working to reduce pictures in order to meet the "dead-line" during E period Journalism III are Sandra Nesbitt and Jack Tesh.

To everyone's surprise, the C period Anchor study hall is working diligently to decide on the pictures to be used in the '58 Anchor.

“O Alma Mater, In Our Hearts, We’ll Often Turn To Thee”

SCHOOL LIFE

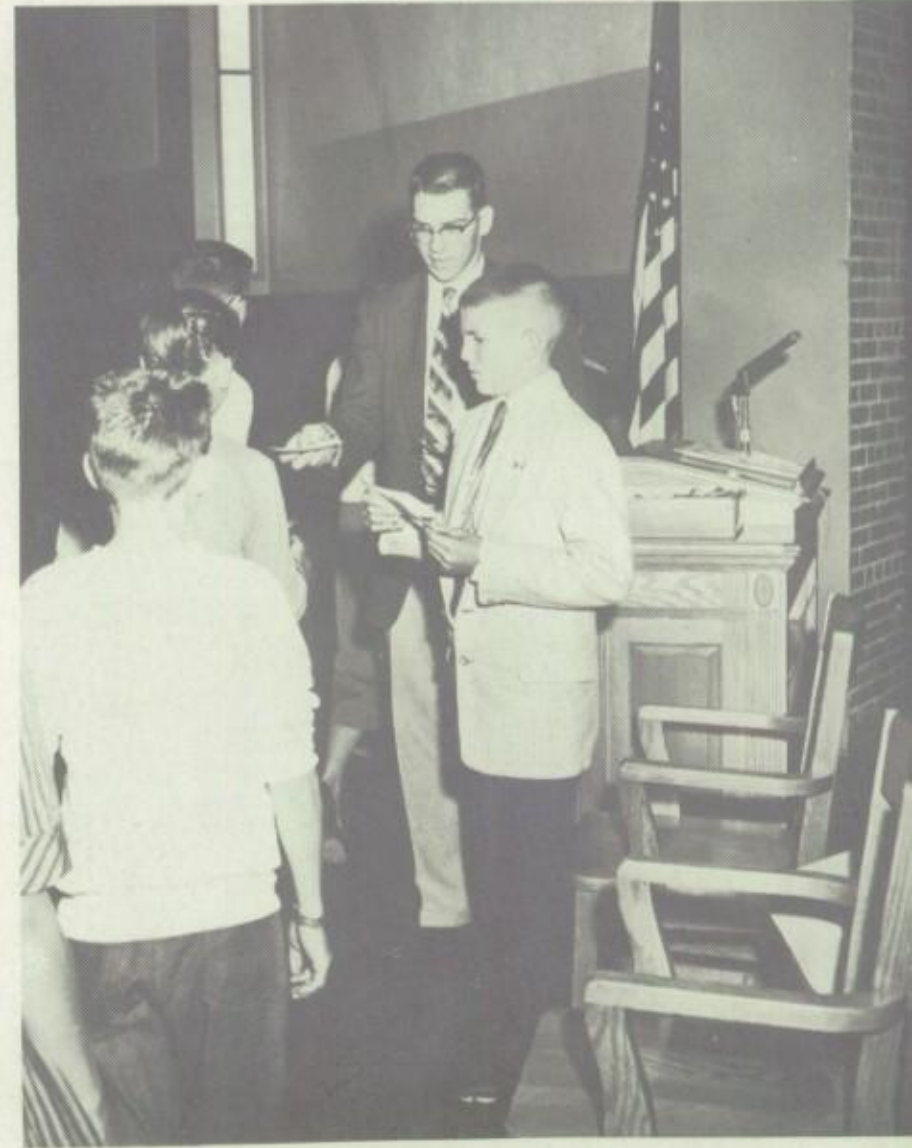

THE MICE ANTICIPATED

Leading the mice into their new high school career are Betsy McIntosh, Honor Council representative; Steve Corum, Vice-President; Gerald Schweida, President; Brenda Veasey, Secretary; and Dickie Dillaman, Executive Board representative.

Proving that she is worthy of being a mouse, Gertrude Helfrich displays her talents for the student body in the Mouse Assembly.

Jack Tesh and Dick Wynne present the eighth graders with their school colors as the school officially receives them as "full-fledged mice."

THE FUN OF THE YEARS AHEAD

Volunteering their time for a Hi-Y project, Brent Tilghman, Clyde Bryant, and John Munick collect money for the March of Dimes campaign.

The ANCHOR Staff, pausing long enough for a picture, prepares to attend a press conference at Columbia University.

Getting out of the bus in front of the Taft Hotel, the ANCHOR Staff looks forward to a wonderful time in New York.

Becky Marshall and Irving Chilcoat perform their daily task of checking the registers.

"It's easy to bop," says Nancy Shaw to Herbert Timberlake, while Joan Pritchett learns from instructor Bobby Derr, during their after-school dancing lessons.

EVERY PHASE OF OUR SCHOOL LIFE

Anticipating their third straight victory at the state tournament are Harry Conn and Bucky Keller, who pause to admire the display case prepared by the School Spirit Committee.

Diane Wimmer, president of the Library Assistants Club, explains the "peep show," featuring characters from various books, to Clay Strader.

Presenting gifts in the Christmas assembly for needy families of the peninsula on behalf of the school are Frances Lawson and Dick Wynne.

Gary Farnsworth keeps James Russell (25) and Jim Shorter (57) away from charging Alvin Marshall, as he tears down the sidelines.

Jack Tesh tries a little too late to intercept one of Groveton's few successful passes. In spite of this unsuccessful try, N.N. teamwork pulled through for a 33-12 win.

Alvin Marshall is brought down hard by a Groveton player while running through the middle of the line as Jack Tesh looks on.

Quarterback Bucky Keller races across the goal line for a touchdown in the Manchester game. Newport News triumphed, 13-7.

PIGSKIN PARADE

This season, for the first time in 5 years, the Golden Typhoon won more games than it lost and established a 6 win, 4 loss record for the season.

Starting off the season against a tough Manchester team, the Typhoon decisioned the Lancers, 13-7 and then traveled to Group II York where they amassed a total of 26 points while holding the Falcons to a zero total. Back home in Saunders Stadium, the Blue and Gold met a terrific E. C. Glass team which proved to be a big setback in more ways than one. Besides losing, 14-0, NN lost the services of fullback Don Hardy who broke his leg and was out for the rest of the season.

On the road again, Newport News met Maury at Foreman Field and suffered a second straight defeat, 19-12, but the following Friday, the Typhoon rebounded to take a weak Suffolk team, 27-0.

On Oct. 25, the home-standing Typhoon met Warwick and downed the Free Staters 12-0. Led by backs, Keller and Spivey, and playing such smooth possession ball, NN beat the Farmers for the first time since 1952. This big victory was followed up by a close, 26-21 loss to the future District champs, Norview, which was in turn followed by a 24-13 win over Granby's Comets. On the following Friday, NN smeared a toothless Tiger team from Groveton, 33-12.

After winning these last two games, the Gold and Blue gridders went on to play their worst game of the season, losing to the powerful Hampton Crabbers, 20-0, in the 60th Annual Turkey Day game. Very little can be said for this "Comedy of Errors," except that the Typhoon was definitely not playing the way it had before.

Despite the last game and the season's injuries, the season was a fine one, and one of which the team, the coaches and the school can be proud. The team was blessed with many stars, including Keller, Tesh, Marshall, Mollick, and Spivey in the backfield; Outland, Jones, Markos, Farnsworth, Van Noy, and Friedland on the line; and Ellis and Morgan on ends. Co-Captains Dan Outland and Jack Tesh, and Quarterback Bucky Keller were honored; Keller received the Julian Gordon Trophy and Tesh received the first annual Sportsmanship Trophy from the Hi-Y.

With half the team graduating, Coach Range will have a rebuilding year next year, but he has good material to build around. Returnees Spivey, Friedland, Rouse, Canepa, and Ivey will be players to watch next season. As we close this season, the ANCHOR and the student body wish Coach Range good luck and hope that he does as well in '58 as he did in '57.

Van Noy, Keller, and Mollick demonstrate a play to the rest of the team at one of the last practices before the Hampton game.

Hampton Co-Captains Bridges and Porter and N.N. Co-Captains Outland and Tesh await the outcome of the opening toss of the coin.

THEY FOUGHT HARD TO WIN

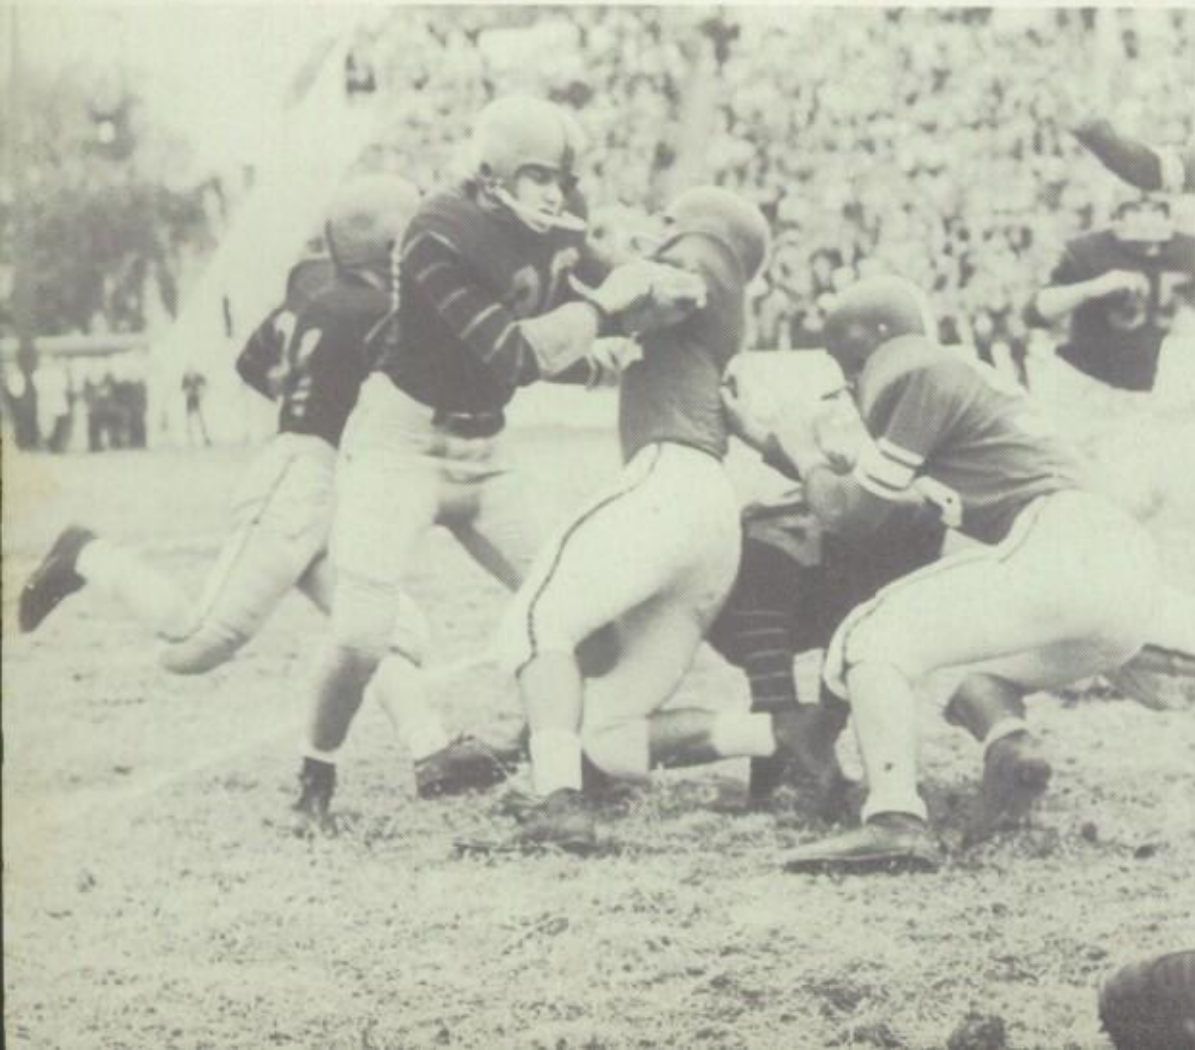

Donald Mollick snares a long pass in the end zone from quarterback Keller in the Warwick game.

Jack Tesh plows through the Granby line after a 33 yard gain at the end of the second quarter. We won this one too, 24-13.

Jimmy Spivey flies through the Suffolk line and over the goal line for a touchdown.

As Jimmy Spivey returns the kickoff, Bobby Burns and Bobby Jones keep off attacking Crabbers from Hampton in the Turkey Day Game.

TYPHOON TRIUMPHS

The Golden Typhoon of Newport News, finest team in Virginia Group One Basketball, roared its way through 25 straight games this season and added the crowning touch by being Eastern District Champions, District Tournament Champions, and State Champions for the third year in a row.

With four returning seniors, Bucky Keller, Kenny Roberts, Don Ellis, and Jack Tesh, and junior Harry Conn, Coach Driesell had an unstoppable quintet that compiled a 19-0 regular season record, for Newport News' first undefeated season since 1929. In addition, the team smashed the old state record of 31 straight games, set by E. C. Glass, and set a new record of 46 straight victories.

Starting off the season against Maury, the Typhoon rolled over all opposition, including arch-rivals Hampton, Warwick, Wilson, and Granby. Up until tournament time the biggest score thrown at the Typhoon had been at the hands of a fired-up Warwick team, which lost 50-48. In the District Tournament NN had no trouble disposing of Hampton and Norview, but Granby began to figure as a real threat. The State Tournament at Charlottesville was also a breeze at first, with the Typhoon polishing off Falls Church and E. C. Glass, but Granby once again entered the picture in the final game, one of the most thrilling in years. Jack Tesh's two foul shots clicked at the last minute to put the Typhoon on top, 50-48, for the Championship.

All-time great Bucky Keller headed the talented regulars and established an unprecedented personal total of 1880 points during his four years on the varsity squad. Although second highest scorer in the state, his real greatness showed in the large number of assists he contributed.

The amazing ball-handling ability of Kenny Roberts and the terrific rebounding of Donald Ellis were major factors in the team's success. Jack Tesh's defensive abilities and great clutch playing came through when the team needed it most, as did Harry Conn's sparkling floor-manship and dead-eye set shot.

A big asset to the team was the tremendous bench strength in such reserves as seniors Bradley and Foster, and underclassmen Gill, Williams, Ivey, Midkiff, Veazey, and Rouse.

The team received many awards, both team and individual. Captain Bucky Keller made the first team of both tournaments, was named the outstanding player in the Eastern District Tournament, and received the Penn Williams Memorial Trophy for the second straight year. He was chosen for the most outstanding player in Virginia, and made the All-Peninsula, All-Eastern, All-State, and State All-Star team. Kenny Roberts was also on the State All-Star team as well as the All-Peninsula team, the District Tournament team, the All-District team and the second State team, and was awarded the first Hi-Y Basketball Sportsmanship Trophy. Don Ellis was our third member of the State All-Star team and was on the All-Peninsula team, the All-District team and the second All-State team.

Since he is losing four regulars and two reserves, Coach Driesell will have a rebuilding year next year, but he has promising material in this season's reserves and the Champion J.V. team.

As the season closes, the ANCHOR congratulates the team and Coach Driesell on the phenomenal season and expresses a hope for four straight next year.

TRACK TOPICS

Track at NNHS once again promised to be a thrilling affair as the ANCHOR went to press. The sport actually began with Cross-Country in the fall.

This year's Cross-Country Team was blessed with two boys who led the team to an undefeated season. Virgil Meares, the team captain, and David Peltz placed first and second respectively in each dual meet. Meares broke the record in the Eastern District Meet, and with solid backing from boys like Puckett, Crickenberger, and Horton, the team went on to take second place in the State Meet, again with Meares and Peltz first and second. After such a successful season, Cross-Country now has been made a major sport in Newport High. In case you don't know, low score wins in this sport.

The undersized Indoor Track Team only ran in the State Meet, where they took fourth place. David Peltz won the half-mile; Dan Outland won the shot put; Virgil Meares took a close second in the mile; and the relay team took third place.

Guided by the masterful hands of Co-Coaches Julie Conn and Charles Nuttycombe, and captained by Co-Captains Virgil Meares and David Peltz, the Track Team looks forward to another successful season.

Leading this year's squad are Virgil Meares, who probably will break a record in the mile, David Peltz, who has already broken one record in the 880, and Dan Outland who has broken two in the shot put. Gene Duncan, a very fast sprinter, leads in the 440 and relay, being joined in the latter by team-mates Peltz, Horton, and Tolbert.

High-flying Tommy Leyland is aided in the pole vault by Martin and Tesh; other high-flyers are Henry Goad in the high jump and James Vines in the broad jump. Goad and Billy Gatling are the two leading hurdlers, with Goad on highs and Gatling on lows.

Having already taken four dual meets, the Typhoon tracksters hope to come out on top in every upcoming event. They can do it, and it looks as if they will.

DIAMOND HEADLINES

Defending Eastern District baseball champion Newport News has begun its 1958 campaign in quest of another fine season. At the outset of the season, the Typhoon nine was hampered by adverse weather conditions and had less practice sessions than were planned as a result. However when NN met its first few opponents, this lack of practice was barely noticeable. With a few key lettermen returning from last year's champions, it looked as though Newport News High School would once again be a leading contender for the district title.

As the ANCHOR went to press, the Typhoon diamondmen had chalked up wins over most of their non-conference opposition, an early loss to Wilson being the only blot on the record at that time.

Jack Tesh, Dan Rouse, and Guy Vanness were the pitchers that figured in the hurling plans of Coach Jack Powers. The batting strength of Coach Powers' outfit lay in the abilities of Jimmy Van Noy, Jesse Kersey, Donald Ellis, and Captain Donald Mollick, while Horace Underwood, Mike McCormick, Allen Foster, and Donnie White were expected to contribute defensive strength.

In the first game of the season, Newport News met and downed a Poquoson nine, 7-4. The game was highlighted by the pitching of NN's Guy Vanness who gave up only four hits to the Bull-Islanders.

A well-pitched Wilson High team shaded the battling Typhoon in Newport News' second non-conference encounter. NN also received a good hurling job from southpaw Dan Rouse, but the Presidents had a slight advantage in the hit department and went on to take the game, 2-1.

The pitching of the Typhoon continued to excel as visiting York was held to one weak hit by Jack Tesh in his first pitching assignment.

Warwick's Farmers were the next opponents on the Typhoon schedule. A strong NN batting game and Warwick's fielding miscues contributed to a 5-2 Newport News win.

The prospects for the rest of the season looked good indeed at printing time, and by the time this appears we hope that Newport News will be on top again. In any case the team will be sure to make the student body proud of them as they have done in the past.

extra
special

If you are an alert young woman, you'll find an "extra special" job at the telephone company.

You'll meet lots of young people your own age... work in pleasant surroundings... receive good pay while you're being trained... get regular raises. And you don't need any experience!

Best of all, you'll be helping almost everyone in your community. Why not find out more about the advantages of telephone work?

A CREED FOR AMERICAN YOUTH

I resolve to let no time or opportunities slip unused by me; that in small things I will strive to do the best that I can in order that the big opportunities of the future will find me qualified. I realize that my future is an enlargement of the present. What I do in my high school years will make me stronger in character that I may help to make a stronger America.

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are approximately 20 lines visible. At the bottom center, there is a dark, semi-circular shape, possibly a hole punch or a shadow from the binding. The paper appears slightly aged or off-white.

A Lovely Girl

These Dawn lovelies always personify that fresh, well-groomed, sophisticated look. These girls know that no greater lesson can be learned than that of hygienic cleanliness. For this service they depend on Dawn's excellent and efficient laundry and dry cleaning to keep their clothes fresh and neat.

Is Like A Melody

When these lovely lasses are entertaining their beaux and guests they know that their home is always clean and attractive because of Dawn's hygienic cleaning of rugs, pillows and home furnishings. These eight young ladies are thankful for Dawn's varied services.
